Senior Symfony PHP Developer

Valuein

Valuein is a SaaS solution allowing to launch and manage subscription offers for B2B, B2B2C and B2C companies.

With Valuein, your company product owner can :

- Create and communicate your subscription offers
- Convert your lead to customer with a self-service online shop and by creating customized quote
- Automate the invoicing, pay your partner, simplify dunning manage and improve sales performances.

Valuein is a scalable plateforme designed to improve the performance of your recurring sales, integrating every function needed and compatible with the market standard (Salesforce, Hubspot, Zuora et Microsoft).

More than 40 enterprise are developing new growth channel thank to Valuein, notably : Royal Canin, Actito, Swania, Saint-Gobain, Schneider, Wojo, Tissot, ...

Main tasks

Inside the development team, your main task will be to work with our customers and project team to adjust our solution to the requirement of our customers.

This includes :

- Helping the project team determine a feasible and simple solution
- Implement code (Symfony 4.4, Php 8) inside the solution
- Provide endpoint to monitor health of the application
- Participate in meetings with the project team and customer team to report progress
- Redaction of technical documentation

Key requirements

- 5+ Years' experience of working in back end software
- Strong applied knowledge of PHP & Symfony
- Understanding of Docker, Jenkins, Uml & Git

Why join the team ?

Valuein is always working on innovation and new features, no project will be the same as any previous one.

There is also a high focus in providing stable and scalable solution, with quality insurance tools.

By working with Valuein, you'll be able to face new challenges.

Oh, and the team is cool also.

- Job can be remote or at our office
- Between 40k€ and 45k€ depending on profile, with 4k€ bonus based on results